Mission
The Office of Veteran and Military Programs and Services (OVMPS) at Rutgers University works to provide a supportive environment for our military-affiliated community. We are dedicated to facilitating a smooth transition through a wide range of programming and services that address academic needs, promote wellbeing, and enhance the professional development of our military-affiliated population. Programming and services include:

- Full access to intellectual and cultural activities
- Programs for academic success
- Employment assistance
- Opportunities for military-affiliated students to enrich the Rutgers community with their experiences, perspectives, and skills

Why OVMPS?

Peer Advising
Obtain peer support by connecting with Rutgers student veterans already on campus.

Veterans Recreational Series
Enjoy shared experiences — including biking, camping, hiking, and rock climbing — while learning skills from trained trip leaders.

Veterans House: A First-Stop Shop
This meeting place and hub of veteran activities provides access to academic advising, financial aid counseling, disability services, and Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.
