RUTGERS
UNIVERSITY | NEW BRUNSWICK

Where Thinking Meets Thriving

Getting to know a place takes a little digging.

Luckily, at Rutgers University–New Brunswick, that’s what we’re known for—rolling up our sleeves and getting our hands dirty. Around here, you’ll examine facts from every angle, challenging yourself with new ideas and planting the seeds from which you’ll take root.

And you will grow.

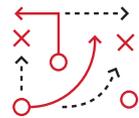

You’ll become an integral part of our landscape and grow into a vital global citizen.

And, when you are among the hundreds of thousands of Rutgers–New Brunswick alumni around the world, you will rise.

A Head Start to Hands-On

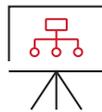

Discover just a few of the many ways we nurture our students' success:

We'll help you individualize your education. Want to major in engineering and minor in philosophy? How about majoring in finance with a minor in art? Joint and accelerated programs, double majors, and double minors are all within reach.

Byrne Seminars introduce you to academic life in college. In these one-credit, first-year courses, you'll learn from some of the university's top professors in engaging classes of just 20 students. From global health to rap music, from politics to yoga, you'll choose from 100+ seminars across the humanities, social sciences, and sciences.

The Rutgers Internship & Co-op Program will kick-start your career. You'll get real-world experience and academic credit at the same time, with support from advisers along the way.

Diversity of culture and thought foster growth. With 100+ cultural organizations and students from nearly all 50 states and 100+ countries, we create a community where the contributions and perspectives of all people are valued, respected, and celebrated.

Live and learn in a learning community. Together you'll take common courses, instantly connecting you to a group of friends. Whether you come together with like-minded business students in the Business Discovery House or explore cultural heritage in the Latin Images Living-Learning Community, you'll find a variety of opportunities to choose from.
